

AT BRISTOL

" COFFEE TIME "

Bristol University Revunions presented a revue called "Coffee Time" at the Victoria Rooms, Bristol, on June 29. The material, largely sketches in which puns are the main source of humour, is the work of the students themselves, and the company, headed by the producers, John Bowles and Norman Lloyd-Edwards, includes much satirical talent, though voices might well be stronger. The revue visits St. Michael's Hall, Teignmouth, for two weeks, opening on Monday next, and should be popular with holidaymakers, especially if a little more pace is introduced into the presentation.
